Serving the Third Generation of America's Finest Students with Products of Distinction

CLOSING

The 1978-79 Warrior represents hard work and sacrifice on the part of quite a few people, and I'd like to thank them.

All of the students, faculty, and staff of West Branch High School were really cooperative throughout the year. Many class periods were interrupted so that pictures could be taken, etc. To all of these people I owe a great deal of thanks.

Laurie Crawford, the staff's business manager, and area businesses also were important in producing the Warrior. Laurie not only collected and recorded all of the ad money, but also did all of the ad pages that appear in the book. With the help of businesses, we were able to win the ad sales contest sponsored by our publishing company for the fifth consecutive year. We sold over $6,000 in ads between June and September of 1978, which is the most in the history of West Branch. This contributed to the color sections and other costly items in the yearbook, and it also kept the price of the Warrior down to its usual $8.00 for students.

Next I'd like to thank Jim Bostjancic and Abey Studios for their fine photography. Jim, our student photographer, was always around to take a picture when we needed him. Abey's, who did all of the Senior portraits, also took all of the excellent color pictures that appear in the Warrior.

Thanks also to our representative from AYC, Ken Brayer. Ken was always around to help us when we had questions or problems. He helped us pick the cover material, endsheets, paper, and all of the many other things that go into printing a yearbook.

Mrs. Sandra McNutt also deserves more recognition than she gets as adviser of the staff. Mrs. McNutt coped with her usual classroom responsibilities as well as with the annual staff. She not only spent her free periods working in the annual staff room, but also spent many evenings at home checking pages.

After more than nine months the 1978-79 Warrior is finally completed. Everyone on the staff worked really hard, and it shows in the quality of the Warrior. For all of their extra effort, the hours they spent after school, and the days of vacation that they worked, I'd like to extend a special thanks to the great Warrior staff members: Lisa, Denise, Kim, Terri, Andrea, Jeannette, Laurie, Lorie, Kim, Janie, Jim, Cindy, and Elaine.
